About “Austerya Urshula”

“Austerya Urshula” is a cozy cafe located in the "National Academic Yanka Kupala Theater". The café got its name in honor of the daughter of the Nesvizh prince Radziwill, who founded theatrical art in Belarus. One of the features of the cafe's decor is the Urshul doll and engravings with historical motifs. Cafe “Austerya Urshula” is chosen for delicious cuisine, traditional Lithuanian, Belarusian, as well as famous Radziwill dishes), a relaxed atmosphere, a summer terrace overlooking the old park and affordable prices.

Atmosphere

The interior of the café “Austerya Urshula” is made in the classical style. The design has a calm beige and brown palette, Viennese chairs and tables with premium textiles, the emphasis is on engravings on the walls of the cafe. Of course, the attention is attracted by a vintage piano and Urshul's doll. The atmosphere is cozy and relaxed. In warmer months, guests can sit on the summer terrace overlooking Alexandrovsky Square.

Cuisine

The menu for the cafe “Austerya Urshula” was specially designed by the Lithuanian chef. Here you can try traditional dishes of Lithuanian, Belarusian and Russian cuisines. Among the company proposals, it is worth noting baked pork ears, a bull's heart with vegetables, a warm salad with goat cheese, a Lithuanian salad, a pig's salad, veal tartare and much more. A special place in the menu is occupied by a dessert card of our own production and a large coffee card. The choice of alcohol is also great, the emphasis is on wines from Spain, France, Italy, Australia, Georgia and other countries.

“Austerya Urshula” is a theatrical story that you can taste.
