Abstract

Abstract of the paper.

1 Introduction

This sample file is intended to serve as a ¡¡starter file¿¿ for CDAM conference papers produced under LaTeX. (LaTeX2ε is preferable to LaTeX Version 2.09)

You should submit up to 4 full pages (up to 8 full pages for Invited Speakers).

2 Section of the Paper

Here is the text of the section.

The command \providecommand should be used instead of the command \newcommand.

The command \provideenvironment should be used instead of the command \newenvironmant.

3 Bibliography typesetting

In order to prepare the bibliography, the ¡¡thebibliography¿¿ environment with manually prepared bibitems should be used. The list of references should be ordered alphabetically. If you use BiBTeX, you can mannualy copy in the resultant .bbl file as the thebibliography environment.
